Hey Jace, I'm SAINTE. Think of me as your personal teammate—here to help, listen, and make sure you keep moving forward, no matter what. No pressure, no judgment. Just real support, whenever you need it.

Some days, you might want help making moves. Other days, you might just need someone to check in. Either way, I'm here. What's on your mind today

[Choose One]

I want to figure out my next step.

Honestly, I just need to vent.

Nothing right now, just getting used to this.

SAINTE, I feel stuck. Work is draining, I missed my CHW check-in, and I don't even know where to start fixing things.

I get it. Feeling stuck is just a sign that you're ready for something bigger. Let's make this the day you shift forward.

Live Score Updates

Current Score: 58 (-2 from last check-in, but we're building momentum.)

Risk Indicator: Career growth is in a holding pattern.

Missed CHW Check-In: Want to reschedule, or focus on something else today?

Honestly, I need to focus on my money. I can't be worrying about meetings right now.

Got it. Let's make today about financial growth. Small, intentional moves that shift your future. Sound good?

Yeah. But where do I even start?

Alright, let's break this down into moves you can make right now. Pick one and let's go:

Check out jobs that pay at least 20% more than your current one.

See if you qualify for free job training to up your earning potential.

Plan one step to start a side hustle—low effort, high upside.

Let's check out better-paying jobs. I can't keep doing this forever.

That's the mindset. We're not here to survive—we're here to build. I found three jobs that would pay you $4 to $8 more per hour.

[OPPORTUNITIES NEAR YOU]

Warehouse Logistics – $5/hr pay increase, flexible shifts

Remote IT Support – Training included, $6/hr increase

Skilled Trade Apprenticeship – $8/hr increase, no degree needed

The second one sounds solid, but I don't have IT experience.

Yet. You don't have IT experience yet. But you do have the ability to learn. If this job will get you where you want to be, I can line up a free training for you today.
